

Management of Tamar Site

The Tourism Commission will continue to manage part of the Tamar Site for one more year until March 31, 2003.

A spokesman for the Economic Services Bureau said: "The Tourism Commission will continue to offer the site for hire on a short term basis. Priority will be given to tourism-related activities."

"Since July 2000, a number of tourism-related or community-wide events including the Hong Kong Products Expos and the Chinese New Year Parades have been held at the Tamar Site, attracting more than 2.7 million participants."

The application form, floorplan and details of hire charges are available at the Tourism Commission's website at <http://www.tamarsite.gov.hk>. Interested hirers may contact Miss Rachel Lau, Project Manager (Tamar Site) by phone at 2810 2013, by fax at 2801 4458 or by email: rachel_wk_lau@esb.gcn.gov.hk for details.
