

“A Symphony of Lights” enhanced with pyrotechnic displays on the sea on New Year’s Eve (December 31)

The Tourism Commission would like to remind both visitors and local residents that the brand new “A Symphony of Lights” will be enhanced with harbour pyrotechnic displays again on New Year’s Eve (December 31). Spectators can watch the new show along both the Hong Kong and Kowloon waterfront.

To fully experience the magic of light and sound, spectators are recommended to watch the new show with the specially composed music. In addition to Avenue of Stars in Tsim Sha Tsui, a public address system has been set up along the Promenade at Golden Bauhinia Square in Wan Chai to broadcast the synchronized soundtrack during show time every night.

The Tourism Commission also recommends that restaurants and hotels along the harbourfront may provide their customers with live broadcast of the soundtrack via radio by tuning in to FM 103.4 MHz (English), FM 106.8 MHz (Cantonese) or FM 107.9 MHz (Putonghua). Spectators may also listen to the soundtrack via their mobile phones by dialing 35-665-665 (English) or 35-665-668 (Putonghua).

Meanwhile, the photo competition for “A Symphony of Lights” jointly organised by the Tourism Commission and the Hong Kong Tourism Board has already started. The competition is open to all. As “A
