

“A Symphony of Lights” enhanced with pyrotechnic displays on the sea

The Tourism Commission announces today (June 20) that “A Symphony of Lights”, which has been awarded The World’s Largest Permanent Light and Sound Show by Guinness World Records, will be enhanced with pyrotechnic displays on June 24 (Saturday), June 25 (Sunday), July 1 (Saturday) and July 2 (Sunday).

The four newly-designed pyrotechnic shows are sponsored by the Hong Kong Tourism Board to complement the “2006 Hong Kong Shopping Festival” staged between June 24 to August 31. They will be staged in Victoria Harbour off the Golden Bauhinia Square and are produced for the first time by an overseas company.

The best vantage points for viewing “A Symphony of Lights” include the promenade at Golden Bauhinia Square in Wanchai, as well as the Avenue of Stars and the waterfront of the Hong Kong Cultural Centre in Tsim Sha Tsui. There will be on-site broadcast of the soundtrack of the show.

Spectators may also listen to the synchronized soundtrack via radio by tuning in to FM 103.4 MHz (English), FM 106.8 MHz (Cantonese) or FM 107.9 MHz (Putonghua); or via their mobile phones by dialing 35-665-665 (English) or 35-665-668 (Putonghua).
