

"A Symphony of Lights" to be suspended for three days from tomorrow

The Tourism Commission announced today (October 3) that to express mourning for the victims of the vessel collision incident off Lamma Island, "A Symphony of Lights" will be suspended for three days starting tomorrow (October 4 to 6).

A spokesman for the Tourism Commission said, "The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government (HKSARG) is marking three days of mourning starting from tomorrow, during which the HKSARG's flag will fly at half mast on all government buildings. 'A Symphony of Lights' will hence be suspended during the period to mourn for the victims of the vessel collision incident."

Ends/Wednesday, October 3, 2012

Issued at HKT 17:07