

"A Symphony of Lights" to be suspended

The Tourism Commission announced today (February 13) that to express deep condolences to the victims at the traffic accident on Tai Po Road that happened on February 10, "A Symphony of Lights" will be suspended tonight.

The Tourism Commission has contacted the Hong Kong Tourism Board, the Hong Kong Travel Industry Council and hotel associations concerned so that they can notify travel agents and visitors of the suspension through their established channels.

"A Symphony of Lights" is staged every night at 8pm at Victoria Harbour and lasts for about 10 minutes.

Ends/Tuesday, February 13, 2018

Issued at HKT 11:50
